

Gary Lecznar serves as the Director of Business Development at Aluminum Blanking Company, Inc.

Prior to ABCo, Gary was the Director of Business Development for Themo Vac, a metal fabrication and welding company based in Oxford, MI. providing support to the power, mining and armor industries. Gary has also held management, technical and sales roles at Yorozu and Alcoa, where he assisted company locations in Mexico, Japan, Thailand and the U.S.

Gary also held various roles at Alcan Aluminum and General Motors, including performing business development and metallurgical functions on products including sheet, extrusions, metal matrix composites and castings.

Gary holds a BS in Engineering Metallurgy from Western Michigan University and a MS from Central Michigan University. He is married and has an adult daughter recently graduated from college.